

Important news about Anglian Compressors & Equipment Ltd registered entity

!ACTION REQUIRED!

01st September 2026

Dear Customer

Thank you for your continued business with Anglian Compressors & Equipment. We've always been committed to providing you with exceptional service and support. As part of our ongoing development, we are excited to announce we are to fully integrate Anglian into the Atlas Copco Compressors business.

As you may know, Anglian was acquired by Atlas Copco on the 10th November 2025. To complete our integration, from 1st September 2026, we will operate under Atlas Copco Ltd (Registered Company Number: 159809). It's important to state we will continue to be here for you, your team and your business.

What this means for you:

- Please raise all future purchase orders to Atlas Copco Ltd T/A Atlas Copco Compressors Atlas Copco Ltd T/A Atlas Copco Compressors.
- Update your vendor and accounts payable records accordingly.

	Not the right person? Please pass this letter on ... We make every effort to keep our records up to date, but we appreciate your help if this communication has reached the wrong contact. Please pass this on. Or click here or scan the QR code and we will do it for you.
